

Dear IBW Bookseller,

This IBW bulletin is from new start up publisher Peach Books, who are launching with two books from Jo Eames, an ex-City Lawyer with a passion for good prose and fine wine (she now works as a wine-buyer for a chain of gastro-pubs). Jo is a brilliant and witty speaker who is very happy to visit bookshops for signings and presentations. Peach would help fund marketing and publicity around these events. To find out more, discuss events or get an idea of availability for Jo Eames, contact Carole Richmond at Peach carole_richmond@hotmail.co.uk

Also we have news direct from the publicist for Duncan Fisher OBE who heads a national campaign called 'Kids in the Middle': <http://kidsinthemiddle.org.uk> He has written a parenting book Baby's Here! Who Does What? (June 2010). Duncan is based in South Wales within easy reach of Newport, Cardiff and Swansea and could give a talk during IBW at local bookshops. Contact Martha Halford-Fumagalli for further information Martha.halford@yahoo.co.uk

Good luck! All best,

Meryl & Sharon
